

Emge Talent Show

We are excited to announce the first annual Emge Talent Show! 3rd - 5th grade students are welcome to audition (either as individuals or groups) and we encourage a variety of talents – singers, dancers, gymnasts, magicians, karate, instruments, etc. You may show a talent or participate as an emcee (host) or backstage crew. We will do our best to represent all three grade levels and to include as many students as possible, but please understand that we cannot accept every act due to time. A panel of teacher judges will determine which students will participate based on their audition, uniqueness of their talent, and their ability to follow STAR expectations at school.

In order to participate in the Talent Show, 3rd - 5th graders must meet the following stipulations. Both students and parents must initial that they have read the requirements and expectations.

- Turn in your completed application form by Friday, January 19, no later than 4:00 pm. Late applications will not be accepted under any circumstance.
